

| President of the
| Family Division |

An Important Message

If you think NCDR (non-court dispute resolution) has not been attempted properly in accordance with the letter from the PFD please contact the Court within 7 days of receipt of this notice and the court will consider the next steps which may include pausing the proceedings until NCDR is complied with.